SPECIAL NOTICE

Flowers Delivered by Telegraph Anywhere At Any Time

BY mutual arrangement with the leading Florists in the United States, we can on short notice have flowers delivered at any address or on board steamers when about to sail. This arrangement has proven very satisfactory, and our customers can rely on their orders always being filled in a prompt and courteous manner.

On telegraphic, and short-notice orders we reserve the right to substitute if we are out of stock ordered, unless order states "no substitute."

All telegraphic, telephone and mail orders given our prompt and best attention.

We do NOT stand the expense of express or parcel post charges on shipments.

All quotations are F. O. B. Macon, Ga. Express and parcel post charges to be borne by customer.

WHILE we exercise the greatest care in selecting the stock and packing same for shipment, we do not expressly or impliedly guarantee condition of flowers at arrival, nor do we guarantee the time of arrival. Upon delivery to express company or post office on time, and in good condition, they are at the buyer's risk, and we will positively NOT file claims for delayed shipments.

Give shipping instructions from Macon. Orders will not be considered that read "ship to arrive."

Where credit is extended to a customer, we expect account paid promptly on first of month following purchase. We do not solicit nor desire credit accounts on any other basis.

We can NOT fill orders at Christmas time unless order is placed with us at least ten (10) days in advance.

Prices subject to change without notice.

This price list cancels all previous quotations.
